PAGE CHARGE AUTHORIZATION

Before your paper can be published in the IEEE Transactions on Antennas & Propagation, it is necessary for you to signify your intent to pay page charges. The form must be completed by all authors of accepted papers. Page charges are computed as follows:

1. Voluntary page charges for the first eight (8) journal pages of a Paper, the first four (4) pages of a Communication, or the first page of a Comment or Errata (at US$110.00 per page)
2. Mandatory page charges for pages in excess of eight (8) pages for a Paper, four (4) pages for a Communication, or one (1) page for a Comment or Errata (at US$200.00 per page)

The mandatory page charge fee must be paid. Otherwise the paper must be reduced to fit within the allowed number of journal pages indicated above. This form must be returned to the Editor before a final editorial decision can be made on the manuscript.

You may estimate the number of journal pages at 1 journal page per 4 pages of double-spaced, 12-point text on A4 paper or 1 journal page per 6 figures (counting individual parts of figures separately). For single-spaced text, estimate 1 journal page per page of text. However, it is emphasised that the final page charges that are assessed will be determined by the actual number of pages that are published in the AP-S Transactions.
